Enhanced

To match the standards implemented for other divisions within eCourts, the filing confirmation/notification emails have been updated. Specifically, the “Document Number” hyperlink has been removed and replaced by the “Transaction ID” hyperlink, and users can now access that link to view the filing attachments submitted.

For additional information, please click here.

eCourts Notification/Confirmation Email Updates:

Previously, when confirmation/notification emails were generated by eCourts, users could view the filing attachments by clicking the “Document Number” hyperlink.

For Direct Appeals and Added/Omitted Direct Appeals, system will check that the total assessment for the property is greater than $1,000,000 and $750,000 respectively

When users select Direct Appeals or Added/Omitted Direct Appeals as a case type, a message is going to show up letting them know that the total assessment of the property must exceed $1,000,000 and $750,000 respectively.

In addition, after adding a property, if the total assessment does not exceed the specified amount, an informatory message will be shown to the users letting them know that the assessment has not exceeded the amount and they should file with the County Board of Taxation.

The assessment value must exceed the amount for at least one property. If it exceeds for at least one property (out of all the properties added), the message is not going to show up.

Also for Added or Omitted Direct Appeals cases, Land and Improvements assessment fields are mandatory now.

Correction in Submit Filing pop up Docket Number

Previously, an incorrect DC docket number was showing up on Submit Filing pop up when attorney was clicking Submit button at the end while filing non-complaint. The issue has been corrected now and the correct Tax Court docket number would show up.

Proceedings tab has been fixed to show correct timings

Previously, Proceedings tab in the Case Jacket was not reflecting the correct time for Hearing. That issue has been fixed now and Proceedings tab shows the correct time.

No Fee will be shown for Freeze Act Based on County Board Judgment case type

Previously, when Freeze Act Based on County Board Judgment was filed, eCourts was showing JACS account details even though there is no fee for this case type. The issue has been fixed now and eCourts is going to show No Fee for this case type on the Enter Fees page. The same text will be shown in Filing Detail page under Case Management.

New case type has been added when initiating a case

New case type “Temporarily Assigned to Superior Court” is now available for External users. This case type does not require filing fees.

The screenshot shows the 'Enter Case Details' form in the Judiciary eCourts System - Tax. The form includes fields for 'Select Action', 'Select Case Type', and 'Enter the Caption'. A dropdown menu for 'Select Case Type' is open, listing various case types, with 'Temporarily Assigned to Superior Court' highlighted. A green arrow points to this option. The form also includes radio buttons for 'Local property' and 'State Tax', and a 'Continue' button.

Message suggesting user to contact TCMO to update their information

When external user's information is incomplete in Tax Court Management System, following message is going to appear on eFiling tab. The message is going to appear regardless of the filing type, either Complaint or non-complaint.

The screenshot shows a message in the Judiciary eCourts System - Tax interface: "Please contact the Tax Court Management Office. Your information is not up to date in the Tax Court System." Below the message are input fields for docket numbers and a "Search" button. The form also includes a "New Case" button and a "ReFile" button.

Adding fee exemption functionality for local property tax non-complaint filings

For non-complaint filings (where applicable), eFiling is now going to include fee exempt checkbox and related reasons for local property tax filings.
