

NOTICE TO THE BAR

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO RULE 1:20
REGARDING DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS OF THE BAR

PUBLICATION FOR COMMENT

The Supreme Court, by this notice, is requesting written comments on three proposed amendments to certain provisions of Rule 1:20 (“Discipline of Members of the Bar”).

The first proposed amendment is to Rule 1:20-6 (“Hearings”) and relates to the reimbursement of special masters appointed by the Supreme Court to preside over the most complex disciplinary matters. The proposal would amend R. 1:20-6(b)(2) so as to provide for the payment of special masters for opinion preparation work. Under the current language of the rule, special masters can be paid only for prehearing conferences and hearings. The proposed amendment would cap the amount payable for opinion preparation in a particular matter at the amount paid for prehearing conferences and hearings in the same matter.

The second and third proposed amendments are to provisions of Rule 1:20-9 (“Confidentiality; Access to and Dissemination of Disciplinary Information”). An amendment is proposed to R. 1:20-9(d)(5) so as to clarify that District Ethics Committee Manuals and District Fee Arbitration Manuals are public documents that are available from the Judiciary as any other public document. And an amendment is proposed to R. 1:20-9(f) so as to permit the Supreme Court to authorize the Office of Attorney Ethics to release information to law enforcement agencies in certain defined situations without notice to the respondent attorney.

The proposed amendments accompany this notice. Please send any comments on the proposals in writing by January 23, 2017 to:
