FROM: Glenn A. Grant, J.A.D.

SUBJECT: The Judiciary's Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Procedures for Title I (Employees/Job Applicants) and Title II (Court Users) on Accommodation Requests, Appeals and Discrimination Complaints

DATE: July 22, 2011

Attached are two brochures setting forth the Judiciary's Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) procedures entitled: (1) "The New Jersey Judiciary's Title I ADA Procedures for Employees and Job Applicants with Disabilities" and (2) "The New Jersey Judiciary's Title II ADA Procedures for Access to the Courts By Individuals with Disabilities" and the "ADA Accommodation Appeal Form."

The procedures incorporate the recently revised ADA sections of the Policy Statement on Equal Employment Opportunity, Affirmative Action and Anti-Discrimination. The procedures are provided in two separate brochures – one for employees/job applicants (Title I) and the other for court users (Title II). The brochures also identify the vicinage and central office Title I and Title II ADA Coordinators assigned to handle accommodation requests from individuals with disabilities.
