DOCKET NO. BER-L-2192-15

Civil Action

ORDER

THIS MATTER having come before this court for a conference regarding docket number BER-L-9279-15, and this court being advised as to the present status of discovery, and for good cause shown,

IT IS ON 8th day of April 2022,

ORDERED that the discovery stay as to docket number BER-L-2192-15 is hereby lifted and discovery relevant to this medical malpractice litigation shall now go forward. The deposition of Dr. Alex Coccoziello is scheduled to go forward on May 31, 2022. As a result of the lifting of the stay, this deposition shall encompass all litigation aspects of these consolidated cases, BER-L-9279-15 and BER-L-2192-15.

A zoom case management conference will be held on June 13, 2022, at 11:00am. This court will provide a zoom invitation to counsel and all counsel shall provide their email addresses for this zoom case management conference to briana.martinotti@njcourts.gov. The purpose of this case management conference is to provide a case management order going forward with regard to discovery. Counsel are invited to submit to this court, a day before the conference, a proposed case management order in Microsoft word format either collectively or individually prior to the conference. These proposed case management orders shall be emailed to briana.martinotti@njcourts.gov and not uploaded to e-courts.

A copy of this order has been uploaded to e-courts and posted on the MCL website.

HONORABLE RACHELLE L. HARZ, J.S.C.
