NATURE OF MOTION: Defendants Motion to Admit G. Brian Jackson, Esquire Pro Hac Vice.

HAVING CAREFULLY REVIEWED THE MOVING PAPERS AND ANY RESPONSE FILED, I HAVE RULED ON THE ABOVE CAPTIONED MOTION AS FOLLOWS:

Defendants, represented by David R. Kott, Esquire, brings this motion seeking an order to admit G. Brian Jackson, Esquire pro hac vice. Mr. Kott is licensed to practice law within the State of New Jersey and is a member of the law firm of McCarter & English, LLP. G. Brian Jackson, Esquire is currently a member in good standing of the bar in the highest court for the State of Tennessee, United States District Court for the Western and Middle Districts of Tennessee, the U.S. Court of Appeals 5th Circuit, the U.S. Court of Appeals 6th Circuit, and the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. Jackson is also a partner at the law firm of Butler Snow, LLP. Mr. Jackson is a licensed attorney since 1992 and has developed expertise in the claims made against the Defendants. Moreover, Mr. Jackson's representation was requested by Defendants and all other parties to the litigation consent to the admission to this court, pro hac vice. This motion is governed by R. 1:21-2, Appearances Pro Hac Vice.

R. 1:21-2 states in pertinent part that an attorney in good standing of another jurisdiction, whether practicing law in such other jurisdiction as an individual or a member or employee of a partnership or an employee of a professional corporation or limited liability entity authorized to practice law in such other jurisdiction, or an attorney admitted in this state, of good standing, who does not maintain a bona fide office in this state, may, at the discretion of the court in which any matter is pending, be permitted, pro hac vice, to speak in such matter in the same manner as an attorney of this state who maintains a bona fide office for the practice of law in this state and who is therefore, pursuant to R. 1:21-1(a), authorized to practice in this state. No attorney shall be admitted under this rule without annually complying with R. 1:20-1(b) and R. 1:28-2 during the period of admission. Additionally, a party must demonstrate good cause for admission pro hac vice. R. 1:21-2(b)(3) provides:

In civil actions the motion shall be granted only if the court finds, from the supporting affidavit, that there is good cause for such admission, which shall include at least one of the following: (emphasis added)

- (A) the cause in which the attorney seeks admission involves a complex field of law in which the attorney is a specialist, or
- (B) there has been an attorney-client relationship with the client for an extended period of time, or
- (C) there is a lack of local counsel with adequate expertise in the field involved, or
- (D) the cause presents questions of law involving the law of the foreign jurisdiction in which the applicant is licensed, or
- (E) there is need for extensive discovery or other proceedings in the foreign jurisdiction in which the applicant is licensed, or

This Court finds, based on the certifications submitted in support of the motion, the moving party articulated the Defendants requested the representation of Mr. Jackson in this litigation and Mr. Jackson is experienced in this complex field of products liability law. The Court finds the two certifications of counsel address a necessary element required under R. 1:21-1(a) and R. 1:21-2 for the Court to make the findings necessary at this time for pro hac vice. Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Defendants' motion.

An appropriate Order consistent with R. 1:21-2(c) is entered. Conformed copies will accompany this Memorandum of Decision. A copy of the Order and this Memorandum of Decision shall be served by the movant on all counsel of record within seven (7) days of the date hereof.
