Statement of Reasons

This matter comes before the Court upon motion by Fox Rothschild LLP, attorney for Defendants, Merck & Co., Inc., and Merck Sharp & Dohme Corp., for an Order to dismiss Plaintiffs' complaint with prejudice pursuant to R. 4:23-5(a)(2), for failure to provide a materially complete and certified Plaintiff Fact Sheet ("PFS"). The Court notes that it has read and reviewed the papers submitted in this matter. The Court further notes that Plaintiffs' Counsel has not filed an opposition.

By way of relevant procedural history, on March 15, 2022, Defendants filed a Motion to Compel the production of materially complete and certified plaintiff fact sheets. After no plaintiff fact sheets were provided, Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs' Complaint without prejudice. On June 30, 2022, this Court granted Defendants' Motion to Dismiss without prejudice and provided Plaintiff with 120 days to come into compliance before a motion to dismiss with prejudice can be filed. Defendants now file the current Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs' Complaint with prejudice because more than 120 days has passed since this Court's Order and Plaintiff has failed to cure the deficiencies and move for reinstatement.

In light of Plaintiffs' failure to comply with this Court's Orders and in light of the additional time provided previously, this Court will be entering an Order dismissing this case with prejudice. The Court finds that despite notice and opportunity, Plaintiff has not provided the outstanding discovery and does not provide justification for additional time.

In so doing, the Court notes pursuant to R. 4:23-5(a)(2), if "an order of dismissal ... without prejudice has been entered pursuant to paragraph (a)(1) of this rule and not thereafter vacated, the party entitled to the discovery may, after the expiration of 60 days from the date of the order, move on notice for an order of dismissal with prejudice." It is well-settled that "dismissal with prejudice is the ultimate sanction, [and that] it will normally be ordered only when no lesser sanction will suffice to erase the prejudice suffered by the non-delinquent party," Zaccardi v. Becker, 88 N.J. 245, 253 (1982) (internal citations omitted), "or when the litigant rather than the attorney was at fault." Ibid. (citing Schlosser v. Kragen, 111 N.J. Super. 337, 341 (1970)).

Our Supreme Court has also held that, "[t]he dismissal of a party's cause of action, with prejudice, is drastic and is generally not to be invoked except in those cases where the order for discovery goes to the very foundation of the cause of action ... or where refusal to comply is deliberate and contumacious.” Schlosser, 111 N.J. Super. at 341 (citing Tsibikas v. Morrof, 5 N.J. Super. 306 (App. Div. 1949)).

The unfortunate reality is given the length of time of non-compliance, the Court finds there is no “lesser sanction” that can suffice to remedy the violations of this Court’s order.

As it has been more than 120 days since this case was dismissed without prejudice, and Plaintiff remains delinquent on her discovery obligations, Defendants’ motion to dismiss with prejudice is granted.
