

NOTICE TO THE BAR

FAMILY – DIRECTIVES WITH TECHNICAL REVISIONS

This is a follow up to the December 20, 2016 Notice to the Bar regarding the Judiciary's review of its Administrative Directives affecting the Family Division, which set forth a list of rescinded Administrative Directives. In the ongoing effort to maintain current and relevant policies and procedures, the Judiciary continues its review of the Administrative Directives affecting the Family Division. As a result of that continuing review, the Family-related Directives have been categorized as follows:

- (a) Directives Requiring No Revision and remaining in effect as issued;
- (b) Rescinded Directives;
- (c) Directives with Technical Revisions;
- (d) Directives Containing Substantive Changes proposed by the Conferences of Family Presiding Judges and Family Division Managers; and
- (e) Directives Pending Revisions (these directives will require further updates to be developed and issued at a later time).

This Notice addresses the third category referenced above, that is, those Family-related Directives that have undergone technical revisions. These Directives are now being reissued as Superseding Directives as noted below. The Directives referenced in this Notice are located at: <http://www.judiciary.state.nj.us/attorneys/directives.html>.

Superseding Directive # 05-17

#03-71 Counsel Fees

This Superseding Directive adds a subsequent case reference as an editor's note. In Spoto v. McCarroll, 250 N.J. Super. 66 (App. Div. 1991), the court found that the trial judge had the authority and discretion to award fees against the defendant in a custody action, notwithstanding the fact that the plaintiff's attorney was employed by legal services. The court remanded for the trial court's reconsideration of fees with the awareness that fees could be awarded to a publicly funded agency.
