

SUPREME COURT OF NEW JERSEY

In furtherance of implementation of New Jersey's Criminal Justice Reform Law, L. 2014, c. 31, codified at N.J.S.A. 2A:162-15 to -26, the Supreme Court earlier adopted amendments to Rules 2:9-1 and 2:9-13 relating to pretrial detention appeals. Rule 2:9-13(c) permits appellants seeking review of an order granting pretrial detention the option of using an Expedited Information Form in lieu of a letter brief in those cases where no transcript is required and the court has not ordered the filing of letter briefs. In those instances where appellant submits an Expedited Information Form pursuant to Rule 2:9-13(c), Rule 2:9-13(c) is supplemented and relaxed, pursuant to N.J. Const. (1947), Art. VI, §2, par. 3, so as to permit the State the option of submitting an Expedited State Response Form. This rule relaxation shall be effective immediately and shall continue pending development and adoption of conforming rule amendments.

For the Court,

Chief Justice
