

Notice to the Bar

EXECUTIONS AGAINST GOODS AND CHATTELS AND EXECUTIONS AGAINST WAGES PREVIOUSLY ASSIGNED TO SPECIAL CIVIL PART OFFICER DOUGLAS NOLAN OF THE BERGEN VICINAGE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, pursuant to court order dated September 11, 2017, the Superior Court, Bergen County, Civil Division, is charged with the orderly transition of the writs of execution against goods, chattels and wages previously assigned to deceased Special Civil Part Officer Douglas Nolan.

The law firm known as Eltman Law, P.C., located at 101 Hudson Street, Suite 2702, Jersey City, NJ 07302, is the counsel of record for plaintiffs in the actions listed below in which writs of execution against wages were assigned to Mr. Nolan. However, as of April 1, 2018, the firm's website indicates that it no longer represents said plaintiffs.

If you are the attorney for the plaintiff or its successor in interest to the plaintiff in an action listed below, please contact the Superior Court, Bergen Vicinage, Special Civil Part, 10 Main Street, Room 415, Hackensack, NJ 07601 within thirty (30) days of the date of this notice. The attorney for the plaintiff or its successor in interest is required to enter an appearance in the action, pursuant to R. 1:11-3 and the Order of the Supreme Court of New Jersey dated February 8, 2018. Failure to do so will cause the automatic entry of a court order resulting in the immediate disposition of outstanding execution(s) against goods and chattels and/or wages previously issued by the court and assigned to SCPO Douglas Nolan. Funds that have been collected but not disbursed in actions in which the attorney for the plaintiff or its successor in interest fails to come forward will be subject to escheatment, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 40:30B-1 et seq. and Administrative Directive #01-15, Appendix G.

Hon. Robert L. Polifroni
Civil Presiding Judge
Bergen County Superior Court
