Essex Vicinage to Hold Child Support Seminar

The Essex Vicinage, will hold a child support seminar on Thursday, Jan. 31 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the East Orange Public Library, 21 S. Arlington Ave., second floor, East Orange.

The Essex Vicinage Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns and Office of the Ombudsman have organized the seminar to provide the community with information and answer attendees' questions about child support issues, including court processes and procedures; the child support guidelines and pertinent laws; filing for establishment, modification and termination of child support orders and the emancipation of dependents; and enforcement of child support orders.

Representatives from Community Health Law Project and the Essex Vicinage will conduct the seminar. Attendees will be provided with information packets. A Spanish interpreter will be available. If additional interpreting services are required, please contact the Office of the Ombudsman and Information & Community Relations Center at 973-693-5774.

This is an informational seminar only. No individual cases will be discussed or resolved.

Registration is not required for this free seminar. Visit njcourts.com for information about ongoing community outreach efforts in the Essex Vicinage.
