Middlesex Vicinage Minority Concerns Committee to Hold Elder Law Program

The Middlesex Vicinage Minority Concerns Committee will hold an elder law program on Monday, June 17 at 6 p.m. at the New Brunswick Public Library, 60 Livingston Ave.

The presentation will address the topics of elder law and scams that target the elderly. Time will be allotted at the end of the presentation for questions.

The workshop is free and is open to all Middlesex County residents. Individual cases cannot be discussed or resolved.

The Middlesex Vicinage Minority Concerns Committee is composed of Superior Court employees, local business owners, school and community leaders and residents of Middlesex County. Their primary concern is to inform the public about the judicial system and to develop educational programs to better serve the residents of Middlesex County.

Participants are asked to call Luis M. Hernandez at 732-519-3344 for more information and to reserve a seat.
