Essex Vicinage to Hold Seminar on Landlord/Tenant, Ejectment, and Foreclosure Issues

The Essex Vicinage will hold a housing seminar on Saturday, Oct. 26 from noon to 2:30 p.m. at the East Orange Public Library, 21 South Arlington Ave., second floor, East Orange.

The vicinage has organized the seminar to provide information and answer questions about landlord/tenant, ejectment, and foreclosure issues, including court processes and procedures, preparing for court, the role of court staff, court and non-court resources, and housing agency resources.

In an ejectment action, generally there is no landlord/tenant relationship. A landlord or property owner can request an ejectment to regain possession of a property on the basis that the occupier has no legal claim to be there.

Representatives from Essex-Newark Legal Services, La Casa de Don Pedro, Tri-City Peoples Corporation, and the Judiciary will conduct the seminar. Information packets will be provided to attendees. If interpreting services are required, contact the Office of the Ombudsman & Information and Community Relations Center at 973-693-5774.

This is an information only seminar. No individual cases will be discussed or resolved.

Registration is not required for this free seminar. Space is limited, and seating will be provided on a first come, first served basis.
