Essex Vicinage to Hold Seminar on Bullying Awareness

The Essex Vicinage Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns will hold a bullying awareness seminar on Wednesday, March 19 from 6 to 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Science Park High School, 260 Norfolk St., Newark.

The vicinage has organized the seminar to provide information about bullying to students, families, and community members. Topics will include the signs, types, and consequences of bullying, as well as community resources and services.

Representatives from the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, Essex County Public Defender's Office, ASPIRA, Inc. of New Jersey, and the Judiciary will conduct the seminar. Barbara Prempeh, a bullying researcher who is working on a doctorate at Kean University, and a representative of Science Park High School also will participate.

A Spanish interpreter will be available. A question and answer period will take place following the seminar.

This informational seminar is free and open to the public. Registration is not required.
