Middlesex Vicinage to Present Divorce Procedures Workshop

The Middlesex Vicinage will present a divorce procedures workshop on Wednesday, April 30 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on the first floor of the Family Courthouse, 120 New St., New Brunswick.

The workshop will provide participants with information on the divorce complaint process, applicable laws, complaint procedures, courtroom procedures, the process for obtaining court orders for child support and alimony, filing of motions and the Custody and Economic Mediation Program.

Panelists for the workshop include Family Division Presiding Judge Deborah J. Venezia; Russ Gale of Central Jersey Legal Services; matrimonial attorney Ellen Schwartz; Christopher Puskarik of the family division's Custody and Economic Mediation Program; Charlene Cumberbatch of the child support unit; Wilda Irizarry of the family division matrimonial unit; Ombudsman Luis Hernandez and Court Librarian Betty Agin.

The workshop is free and open to the public. Registration is required. Contact Sandra Lassiter at 732-519-3208 to reserve a seat.

Because this is an informational workshop, no individual cases can be discussed or resolved.

Divorce forms and materials for self-represented litigants will be available.

A Spanish interpreter will be available.
