Immigration Law Seminar to be Held in Monmouth Vicinage

The Monmouth Vicinage and the Monmouth Bar Association will hold an immigration law seminar on Wednesday, May 7 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. in the Lawyers' Lounge, Room L-46 at the Monmouth County Courthouse, 71 Monument Park, Freehold.

Daniel Weiss of the Monmouth Bar Association will speak about immigration law and its impact on criminal and family issues in court. Time will be allotted at the end of the presentation for questions.

The event is being held as part of the Monmouth Vicinage celebration of Law Day. Law Day has been celebrated since 1958 as a day to acknowledge and reflect on the importance of the rule of law and our fundamental beliefs of equality and equal access to those laws.

This is an informational workshop only. Individual cases cannot be discussed or resolved. The workshop is free and is open to the public. Reservations are required. Staff should be informed in advance if an interpreter is needed.

Attorneys who attend this class will receive one continuing legal education credit.

For additional details and to reserve a seat, contact the Monmouth Vicinage Self-Help Resource Center at 732-677-4595 or email monreservations.mailbox@judiciary.state.nj.us.
