Morris/Sussex Vicinage Hosts Military Appreciation Ceremony
Featuring Harry Ettlinger, WWII “Monuments Man”

In recognition of National Military Appreciation Month, the Morris/Sussex Vicinage will hold a ceremony on Friday, May 16 at 12:30 p.m. in the jury assembly room on the first floor of the Morris County Courthouse, Washington and Court streets, Morristown. The ceremony will honor judges, court staff, and others who have served their country in the armed forces.

Harry Ettlinger, one of the five surviving members of the WWII Monuments, Fine Arts and Archives unit, now known as the “Monuments Men,” will speak to the audience about his experiences. Assignment Judge Thomas L. Weisenbeck will open the ceremony and Charles Jurgensen, Morris County Veterans Services Officer, will provide a roll call of court personnel who are veterans.

This event is free and members of the public are welcome to attend.
