Middlesex Vicinage Holds Screening of “The Borinqueneers” Documentary Highlights All-Hispanic Army Regiment

As a part of its community outreach initiative, the Middlesex Vicinage Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns will hold a screening of the documentary “The Borinqueneers” on Wednesday, Nov. 19 at 5 p.m. at the Middlesex County Courthouse, 56 Paterson St., New Brunswick.

“The Borinqueneers” is a documentary of the 65th Infantry Regiment of the U.S. Army who fought and sacrificed many lives during World War I, World War II, and the Korean War. The title comes from the Taino Indian word “Boriken” that refers to the name given to the island of Puerto Rico by its original inhabitants. The 65th was the only all-Hispanic army regiment, described by its commanders as an exemplary unit with strong leadership and esprit de corps that fought gallantly during the initial battles in Korea.

The film screening is open to all Middlesex County residents. Attendees should contact Luis M. Hernandez at 732-519-3344 or luis.hernandez@judiciary.state.nj.us to register.

This program is co-sponsored by Middlesex County Bar Foundation, PRAB, the PRAB Family Success Center and the NAACP Edison branch.

Light refreshments will be served.

Though the courthouse address is 56 Paterson St., attendees should enter on the Bayard St. side.
