Essex Vicinage to Host Senior Law Day

The Essex Vicinage will hold a free Senior Law Day on Tuesday, Nov. 18, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the City of East Orange – Senior Center, 90 Halstead St., East Orange.

The Essex Vicinage Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns has organized this program to discuss family, consumer and estate planning laws and the need for wills, guardianships, advanced directives and the importance of making informed healthcare decisions. Lawyers and other professionals will participate, including representatives from the Office of the Essex County Surrogate, AARP, Essex-Newark Legal Services, Volunteer Lawyers for Justice, Essex County Bar Foundation, and the Community Health Law Project.

A Spanish interpreter will be available. If additional interpreting services are required, contact the EEO/AA Officer at 973-693-5727.

Registration is not required.

The Superior Court's Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns includes members of the Essex County community including bar association members; representatives from public and private sector agencies, educational institutions, community and faith-based organizations, and corporations; court employees; and members of the public. The committee is charged with helping the court improve the administration of justice for all court users and to increase communication with the community by offering educational programs on court services and programs and through other public information and customer service initiatives.

A statewide calendar of public education programs can be found at njcourts.com. Click on the Self Help Center tab and look for the "Court Seminars and Public Events" link.
