MORRIS/SUSSEX VICINAGE CELEBRATES LAW DAY 2015

Morris County Law Day Celebration

The Morris/Sussex Vicinage will host its annual Law Day event in a noontime ceremony at the Morris County Courthouse at Washington and Court streets in Morristown on Friday, May 1.

The keynote speaker will be Appellate Division Judge Mary Gibbons Whipple, who will speak on the 2015 Law Day theme, “Magna Carta: Symbol of Freedom Under Law.” Other speakers include Assignment Judge Thomas L. Weisenbeck; Kathryn A. DeFillippo, Morris County freeholder director; Robin C. Bogan, president-elect of the Morris County Bar Association; and Patrick J. Galligan, president of the Morris County Bar Foundation.

The mock trial team from West Morris Mendham High School will be honored during the ceremony. The team won the county and regional titles in the 2015 Vincent J. Apruzzese High School Mock Trial Competition. Music will be provided by the Morristown High School Vocal and String Ensemble under the direction of Norma Davis.

Sussex County Law Day Celebration

The Sussex County Law Day celebration will be held on Thursday, April 30, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the historic courthouse, High and Spring streets, Newton. Lauren D. Fraser, Sussex County Bar Association president, and attorney Mark J. Hontz, who chairs the Law Day committee, will address attendees. Attorney Sanford Hollander, who at 83 is the oldest practicing attorney in Sussex County, will be honored for his service to the practice of law. The Sussex County mock trial winners from Kittatinny Regional High School also will be honored.

Both events are open to the public and no reservations are necessary.
