Hudson Vicinage to Host Court Night 2015

Hudson Vicinage, in partnership with the New Jersey State Bar Association and Foundation and the Hudson County Bar Association and Foundation, will host Court Night 2015 on Wednesday, May 27 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in the Justice William J. Brennan Courthouse, 583 Newark Ave., Jersey City. Court Night, an annual program, offers free court related information sessions to Hudson County residents in an effort to assist them in navigating the court system.

“Public service is at the heart of what we do every day in the Superior Court of New Jersey. The Hudson Vicinage’s annual Court Night program embodies this commitment to excellent public service. Not only do our Court Night volunteers connect residents to valuable resources and practical information, their professionalism and dedication help to foster a stronger relationship between the Judiciary and the community we serve,” said Trial Court Administrator Silvia I. Gonzalez.

The topics for this year’s information sessions will be:

- Landlord/Tenant Issues
- Child Support
- Expungement of Criminal Records
- Dealing with Debt
- Caregiver Law
- Domestic Violence

Attorneys and court staff will lead the information sessions. Time will be allotted for general questions from attendees, but speakers will not be able to provide advice on individual matters.

Pre-registration is recommended for this event, as space is limited. Call 201-217-5109 or email HUDSON.RESERVATION@JUDICIARY.STATE.NJ.US to pre-register. Participants should provide their name, telephone number, and the session they would like to attend.

This programming is part of Hudson Vicinage’s ongoing community outreach efforts. It is an outgrowth of Law Day, which President Dwight D Eisenhower established in 1958 to celebrate our nation’s great heritage of liberty, justice, and equality under law.
