Hudson Vicinage to Host Local Artwork Devoted to Women's History and Culture

The Hudson Vicinage will host a panel discussion and exhibit featuring the work of Hudson County artists Elise Tak, Geraldine Gaines, and Joseph Gilmore on Thursday, March 17 from noon to 2 p.m. in Courtroom 807 of the Hudson County Administration Building, 595 Newark Ave. Jersey City. The artwork is devoted to women's history and culture to commemorate Women's History Month. The program is free and open to the public. No prior registration is required.

The event is co-sponsored by the Hudson Vicinage EEO/AA and Minority Concerns advisory committees.

The advisory committee includes a cross section of vicinage employees who are appointed by the assignment judge to help build cultural awareness and understanding between the courts and the community. The committee includes Superior Court employees and representatives from local businesses, schools, community groups and the public. The committee develops programs that enable the court to better serve the community.
