OCEAN VICINAGE TO HOST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SEMINAR

The Ocean Vicinage will host a seminar on Friday, June 10 to provide information about domestic violence and the protective services available through the courts.

The seminar will be held from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Jury Assembly Room of the Ocean County Courthouse, 100 Hooper Ave., Toms River. The vicinage's Legal Research and Information Center will conduct the session with South Jersey Legal Services.

Several staff attorneys from South Jersey Legal Services, led by managing attorney Natasha McLaurin, will speak on a variety of topics connected to the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act of 1991. Topics will include an overview of criminal statutes included in the Act, the court process for filing restraining orders, and the consequences that result from the filing of a restraining order.

The event is open to the public but space is limited and reservations are encouraged. Contact 732-929-2063 for more information.
