Chief Justice Rabner to Deliver Remarks at Monmouth Vicinage Criminal Justice Reform Seminar

What: Monmouth Vicinage will host a half-day seminar on the scope, nature and impact of criminal justice reform, which will go into effect on Jan. 1, 2017. Chief Justice Stuart Rabner and Judge Glenn A. Grant, acting administrative director of the courts, will deliver opening remarks. State Sen. Joseph M. Kyrillos Jr. will also speak. Monmouth County Prosecutor Christopher Gramiccioni and Deputy Public Defender Van Lane will discuss the critical elements of interagency cooperation needed for the success of criminal justice reform. Judiciary staff will discuss the impact on municipal courts and how information technology will be used to implement reform.

When: Wednesday, Sept. 28, 8:15 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Where: Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office, 132 Jerseyville Ave., Freehold.

Note: This event is by invitation only. Media representatives interested in covering the seminar should contact Janet Slocum at 732-677-4208.
