Passaic Vicinage Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month

The Passaic Vicinage will celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month on Thursday, Oct. 6 with a program sponsored by its Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns and the Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Advisory Committee.

The celebration will take place from 12:30 to 1:45 p.m. in the Freeholders Meeting Room on the second floor of the Passaic County Administration Building, 401 Grand St., Paterson.

The theme for this year's program is "Honoring Our Heritage – Building Our Future."

Superior Court Judge Yolanda Adrianzen will introduce the guest speakers, who will share stories of their Hispanic heritage. Scheduled speakers include State Sen. Nellie Pou, Passaic County Surrogate Bernice Toledo, and former Passaic County Freeholder Director Sonia Rosado. Local Peruvian dancers will perform.

The celebration is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.
