Chief Justice Rabner to Deliver Remarks at Hudson Vicinage Criminal Justice Reform Seminar

What: Hudson Vicinage will host a half-day seminar on the scope, nature and impact of criminal justice reform, which goes into effect on Jan. 1, 2017. Chief Justice Stuart Rabner; Judge Glenn A. Grant, acting administrative director of the courts, and state Assembly Speaker Vincent D. Prieto will deliver opening remarks. Assignment Judge Peter F. Bariso Jr. will welcome attendees. Local leaders and representatives from the Administrative Office of the Courts, state Attorney General's Office, Public Defender's Office, Hudson County Bar Association and Hudson County Prosecutor's Office will discuss how the new criminal justice laws will impact the court system, particularly at the municipal level, and how information technology will be used to implement reform.

When: Thursday, Oct. 6, 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Where: Hudson County Community College Culinary Arts Institute, 161 Newkirk Ave., Jersey City.
