Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage to Host Domestic Violence Seminar

The Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage will host a domestic violence seminar on Monday, Nov. 21 in Courtroom 1 of the Salem County Courthouse, 92 Market St., Salem.

Ashley Courtney, managing attorney for South Jersey Legal Services, will speak on a variety of topics connected to the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act of 1991, including criminal statutes covered under the act, the process for filing restraining orders, and an explanation of how restraining orders operate.

A representative from the Judiciary's Domestic Violence Unit will provide information on what litigants can expect when seeking to file or dissolve a restraining order. Representatives from Salem County Women's Services will discuss how they can assist domestic violence victims and their families.

Those interested in attending the seminar can call 856-575-5244 for more information.
