Middlesex Vicinage Celebrates Black History Month

In celebration of Black History Month, the Middlesex Vicinage will host a program on Friday, Feb. 24 featuring Judge Glenn A. Grant, acting administrative director of the courts, who will speak about Criminal Justice Reform and its impact on the judicial process.

The event, sponsored by the vicinage's EEO/AA Advisory Committee, will begin at 12:30 p.m. in the jury assembly room at the Middlesex County Courthouse, 56 Paterson St., New Brunswick.

The program theme is "Legacy of Leadership – Impacting Change in the Judicial Process." Assignment Judge Travis L. Francis and Trial Court Administrator Dawn Brevard-Waters will deliver opening remarks.

The program is free and open to the public.
