Essex Vicinage Celebrates Black History Month

Essex Vicinage will hold its annual Black History Month program on Monday, Feb. 27 from noon to 1:30 p.m. in the 14th floor conference room of the Leroy F. Smith Jr. Public Safety Building, 60 Nelson Place, Newark.

This year's event, "Education in the Black Community: A Tale of Progression," will include remarks from court staff regarding the importance of education in their lives. The event will also include a photography exhibit, a reading from the winner of the vicinage's poem contest and a performance from the Newark Boys' Chorus

Assignment Judge Sallyanne Floria will deliver welcoming remarks. The program is sponsored by the vicinage's Equal Employment Opportunity/ Affirmative Action Advisory Committee.
