MORRIS/SUSSEX VICINAGE CELEBRATES LAW DAY 2017

The Morris/Sussex Vicinage will celebrate Law Day this year with events in both counties on Monday, May 1. The theme for this year's events is "The Fourteenth Amendment – Transforming Democracy." Both events are free and open to the public.

Morris County Law Day Celebration

The Morris/Sussex Vicinage will host its annual Law Day event from noon to 2 p.m. in the Morris County Courthouse, Washington and Court streets, Morristown.

New Jersey Supreme Court Justice Jaynee LaVecchia will deliver the keynote speech. Other speakers include Assignment Judge Stuart A. Minkowitz and Stephanie Frangos Hagan, president of the Morris County Bar Foundation.

The mock trial team from Mendham High School, winners of the county and regional titles in the 2017 Vincent J. Apruzzese High School Mock Trial Competition, will be honored during the ceremony. Music will be provided by the Morristown High School Vocal and String Ensemble, under the direction of Norma Davis.

Sussex County Law Day/Court Night Celebration

The Sussex County Law Day celebration will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. at the historic courthouse, High and Spring streets, Newton.

Sussex County Bar Association President John D. Williams and attorney Mark J. Hontz, who chairs the Law Day committee, will address the attendees. Retired Judge James A. Farber will be honored for his lifetime of service to the practice of the law. The Sussex County mock trial winners from High Point Regional High School also will be honored. Music will be provided by the Law Day Brass Band. Refreshments will be served.
