Middlesex Vicinage Sponsors Court Night

The Middlesex Vicinage, in conjunction with the Middlesex County Bar Foundation, will sponsor Court Night, a series of informational workshops covering a range of court topics.

The event will be held Thursday, May 4 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Redshaw Elementary School, 216 Livingston Ave., New Brunswick.

Court representatives and attorneys will conduct free workshops in the following areas:

- Landlord/tenant issues, including an overview of basic landlord and tenant rights and landlord/tenant court.
- Child support, including the basics of filing for child support and modifying or terminating child support agreements.
- Legal issues surrounding immigration issues, such as deportation and the consequences related to criminal and municipal court convictions.
- Domestic violence prevention and available resources for domestic violence victims.
- Criminal Justice Reform and its impact.

The sessions are open to all Middlesex County residents. Court representatives and attorneys will conduct the sessions and will be available to answer general questions from the public. Personal cases will not be discussed or resolved.

Court night is a free event. Childcare will be provided by Harmony House. Food will be provided at no charge during the program. Pre-registration is highly recommended. Contact MiddlesexHelp.mailbox@njcourts.gov or 732-519-3344. When registering, provide your name, telephone number, email address and the workshops you want to attend. Personal information will be kept confidential.
