Cumberland/Salem/Gloucester Vicinage to Host Domestic Violence Seminar

The Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage and South Jersey Legal Services will host a public seminar on domestic violence on Friday, April 28th from 10 a.m. to noon in the Jury Assembly Room of the Gloucester County Courthouse, 70 Hunter St., Woodbury.

South Jersey Legal Services attorneys Connie Sailey and Rebecca Preuss, will speak on a variety of topics connected to the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act of 1991, including the definition of criminal statutes under the act, court processes for filing restraining orders, and how restraining orders operate.

A representative from the Judiciary's Domestic Violence Unit in Gloucester will discuss what litigants should expect when seeking to file or dissolve a restraining order. Representatives from SERV (Services Empowering the Rights of Victims) will discuss how they can assist domestic violence victims and their families.

Those interested in attending the seminar can call 856-575-5244 for more information.
