Probation Officers from Somerset/Hunterdon/Warren Vicinage Receive Outstanding Achievement Awards

Two Somerset/Hunterdon/Warren probation officers received service awards from the Chief Probation Officers Association of New Jersey on Aug. 4 at the Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex in Trenton.

Blanca Sterlacci and Gladys Gomez received Outstanding Achievement Awards.

Sterlacci handles a caseload of intake phase probationers. She was recognized for her ability to organize and prioritize her work effectively and her ability to be firm, empathetic and fair with her clients.

Gomez manages a child support caseload of more than 800 cases with an average collection rate of 82 percent, consistently one of the highest in the unit. She has a positive attitude and always motivates her teammates

“We are very proud of our probation officers in the Somerset/Hunterdon/Warren Vicinage and commend Blanca Sterlacci and Gladys Gomez on this well-deserved recognition,” Assignment Judge Yolande Ciccone said. “Blanca and Gladys are shining examples of the excellent work performed by probation officers in serving our clients.”
