Hudson Vicinage Seeks Volunteers for Child Placement Review Boards

The Hudson Vicinage is seeking citizen volunteers to serve on Child Placement Review (CPR) boards. CPR board volunteers monitor the cases of children placed in foster care or residential placements by protective services to ensure that the placement serves the best interest of the child. Board members review case records and plans, interview interested parties and make recommendations to the court.

CPR board members are appointed by the court for a provisional term of one year and could be reappointed for additional three-year terms. Prospective board members must undergo a screening process that includes an application, interview, fingerprinting and criminal background check. Selected volunteers must attend program-specific training. CPR boards meet bi-weekly at 5:30 p.m.

For more information about the program and application process, contact CariAnn Gingerelli at 201-217-5109 or Cariann.Gingerelli@njcourts.gov.
