Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage Probation Staff Honored

Five Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage probation officers received service awards from the Chief Probation Officers Association of New Jersey (CPONJ) on Aug. 4 at the Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex in Trenton.

Kimberly Jobes, an investigator in Gloucester County Child Support, received the Career Achievement Award, given to those who represent an ongoing commitment to probation service.

Jorlane Dellaquilla, who works in Cumberland County Adult Supervision, and Armando Gonzalez, who supervises the juvenile supervision and the community service and collection units in Salem County, received the Certificate of Outstanding Achievement, given to those who have distinguished themselves as leaders or made significant accomplishments toward the advancement of the probation service.

Lizabeth Baez, a bilingual senior probation officer in Cumberland County Drug Court, and Brian Skoblar, who is assigned to adult probation in Salem County, received the Certificate of Meritorious Service, given to probation officers who have made outstanding contributions to the advancement of probation's role within the Judiciary.

“Assignment Judge Benjamin C. Telsey and I are extremely proud of Lizabeth, Brian, Jorlane, Kimberly, and Armando,” Trial Court Administrator Jason Corter said. “Our probation division staff are committed to providing ongoing services to their clients, which strengthens our community.”
