Burlington Vicinage Probation Staff Receive Service Awards

Three Burlington Vicinage probation officers received service awards from the Chief Probation Officers Association of New Jersey on Aug. 4 at the Richard J. Hughes Complex in Trenton.

Senior Probation Officer William Peters received the Career Achievement Award, given to those who represent an ongoing commitment to probation service. Peters has been a probation officer for 17 years.

Senior Probation Officer Sherry Nelson-Taylor and Probation Officer Ashley Semptimphelter received the Certificate of Outstanding Achievement, given to those who have distinguished themselves as leaders or made significant accomplishments toward the advancement of probation service.

“Our vicinage is proud of the great work done daily by our probation division staff,” Assignment Judge Ronald Bookbinder said.
