Hudson Vicinage Hosts Panel Presentation in Celebration of Black History Month

The Hudson Vicinage will celebrate Black History Month on Tuesday, Feb. 27 with a panel presentation by local African-American veterans.

In keeping with this year's national theme, "African Americans in Times of War," the presentation will focus on life in the military and the transition home.

The event will take place from noon to 2 p.m. in room 804 of the Hudson County Administration Building, 595 Newark Ave, Jersey City.

Assignment Judge Peter F. Bariso Jr. will deliver opening remarks. EEO/AA Officer Stephanie Rivera will moderate.

Kevin Kirkland, a corporal in the U.S. Army, and Joshua Legier, a sergeant in the U.S. Marine Corps, will speak about their experiences and answer questions. Both men are students at New Jersey City University in Jersey City, home to a military and veterans services program that supports those who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces.

This event is free and open to the public.
