Essex Vicinage Celebrates Black History Month

The Essex Vicinage and the Garden State Bar Association will celebrate Black History Month on Wednesday, Feb. 28 with a panel discussion featuring distinguished judges and attorneys.

The event will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Martini Foundation Lecture Hall, Room CLJ010 at the Rutgers Law School – Newark Center for Law and Justice, 123 Washington St., Newark.

Panelists include retired Superior Court Judge Harold Fullilove, former state Assistant Attorney General Wanda Moore and Associate Counsel Andrea McChristian of the New Jersey Institute for Social Justice.

The program, which is arranged by the vicinage's Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns, is free and open to the public.
