Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage to Sponsor Expungement Seminar

The expungement seminar planned for Tuesday, March 6 at the Cumberland County Courthouse in Bridgeton has been canceled.

A second seminar is scheduled for Wednesday, April 11 from 5 to 6:45 p.m. at the Gloucester County Justice Complex, 70 Hunter St., Woodbury.

Sponsored by the Cumberland/Gloucester/Salem Vicinage, the program will provide participants with information on the types of criminal and juvenile records that can be expunged, the time requirements to be eligible for an expungement, how to prepare and file an expungement and what happens after an expungement is granted.

Speakers will include attorney Akil S. Roper, vice president and assistant general counsel of Legal Services of New Jersey and member of the Supreme Court Committee on Minority Concerns.

The seminar, “An Overview of the Adult and Juvenile Expungement Processes,” is organized by the Judiciary’s Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns for Cumberland, Gloucester and Salem counties.

Light refreshments will be served. Seating for this seminar is limited. Participants should RSVP to minorityconcerns.mailbox@njcourts.gov.

For attorneys, the course offers 1.5 general CLE credits through the Judiciary’s Minority Concerns Program pending approval by the New Jersey Supreme Court Board of Continuing Legal Education. For questions about attorney registration and CLEs, contact the Minority Concerns Unit at 609-815-2900, x52365.

Requests for interpreting services or ADA accommodations and questions about facility logistics can be directed to Maria Buono-Gaimari at 856-453-4366.
