Camden Vicinage Celebrates Law Day 2018

Assignment Judge Deborah Silverman Katz announced that the Camden Vicinage will hold its annual Law Day celebration on Friday, April 27 at 9:30 a.m. in the jury assembly room at the Hall of Justice, 101 S. 5th St., Camden.

The national theme for this year's Law Day is "Separation of Powers: Framework for Freedom."

Students from the Camden County Technical School's Pennsauken and Sicklerville locations, Creative Arts Morgan Village Academy and Lawnside Public School will take part in the program and explore the ways the U.S. Constitution sets out a system of government with separate but co-equal branches – judicial, legislative and executive.

Superior Court Judge Morris G. Smith will give opening and closing remarks and Trial Court Administrator Carole A. Cummings also will speak. Students will have the opportunity to participate in a group discussion on the day's topic, moderated by Judge Smith, followed by a tour of the courthouse.

The program, sponsored by the vicinage in partnership with the Association of Black Women Lawyers of New Jersey and the Camden County Bar Association, is made possible with funding from the New Jersey State Bar Association and the IOLTA Fund of the Bar of New Jersey.

Law Day is a national event established by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1958 as "a day of national dedication to the principles of government under law."
