Ocean Vicinage Hosts Speaker Series, Information Fair

The Ocean Vicinage is partnering with the Ocean County Library for a speaker series and information fair on Thursday, May 3 at the library, 101 Washington St., Toms River.

The events are part of the vicinage's Law Day celebration.

The speaker series will begin at 1:30 p.m. with a divorce overview, followed by a child support/probation discussion at 2 p.m. It will conclude with a presentation on Criminal Justice Reform at 3 p.m.

Judiciary staff and representatives from South Jersey Legal Services and the Ocean County Surrogate's Office will participate in an information fair beginning at 12:30 p.m. The public will learn about court and community resources and careers in the Judiciary. Information from the Ocean County Surrogate's Office will be available and information about court processes and procedures will be provided. Court forms will be available.

The event is co-sponsored by the Ocean County Library and the Superior Court of New Jersey, Ocean Vicinage, with participation from the South Jersey Legal Services and the Ocean County Surrogates Office. No individual cases will be discussed or resolved.

This event is free and open to the public. Registration is not required, however, those who would like to reserve a seat at the speaker series should contact the library at 732-349-6200.
