Helen Livingston Named Assistant Director of Support Services

Helen Livingston has been named assistant director of support services for the New Jersey Judiciary, Judge Glenn A. Grant, acting administrative director of the courts, announced today.

Livingston succeeds John Italiano, who retired. Her appointment is effective June 25.

As assistant director, Livingston will be responsible for the daily operations of the support services division within the Office of Management and Administrative Services. She will oversee management of all Judiciary facilities, emergency planning and response, health and safety audits and issues, ADA accommodations, telecommunications and several statewide programs that affect all divisions of the Superior Court.

A graduate of Seton Hall University, Livingston has more than 20 years of experience in facilities management, including in the private sector.

She worked for the Morris/Sussex Vicinage before taking a position with the U.S. District Court in New Jersey. She also worked for Rutgers University and The Lawrenceville School.
