Trial of Ferdinand Augello to begin in Atlantic County

The criminal trial of Ferdinand Augello will begin Monday, Sept. 10 at 8:45 a.m. before Superior Court Judge Bernard E. DeLury Jr. in the Atlantic County Criminal Courts Complex.

Two pews will be reserved for the media each day. Additional space will be designated if necessary to allow members of the media to listen to a live audio of the trial.

News organizations must make arrangements in advance for still or video cameras in the courtroom, according to the Supreme Court guidelines. Two media outlets will be permitted to use still cameras and one media outlet will be permitted to video record while court is in session. Those media outlets would be responsible for coordinating and pooling still photographs and video/audio feeds at the request of other outlets. Livestreaming is not permitted and will be strictly enforced.

Video and still photographers will be required to check in each morning at the criminal division window on the third floor.

The trial will be held according to the following schedule at the courthouse, located at 4997 Unami Blvd., Mays Landing:

Pretrial motions are scheduled for Monday. Jury selection is planned for Tuesday, Sept. 11 and Wednesday, Sept. 12, with Thursday, Sept. 13 set aside for an additional day of jury selection if necessary. Opening statements and the start of testimony are scheduled to begin Monday, Sept. 17.
