Passaic Vicinage Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month

The Passaic Vicinage will celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month on Friday, Oct. 12 with a program "One Endless Voice to Enhance Our Traditions."

The program will be held from 12:30 to 1:45 p.m. in the Freeholders Meeting Room on the second floor of the Passaic County Administration Building, 401 Grand St., Paterson.

Superior Court Judge Yolanda Adrianzen, chair of the vicinage Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns, will give opening remarks. The program will include Peruvian dancers from Paterson and a singing performance by Israel Ortiz, a vicinage employee.

The celebration is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

The program is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns and the Equal Employment Opportunity Affirmative Action Advisory Committee.
