Middlesex Vicinage Celebrates Black History Month

The Middlesex Vicinage will host a Black History Month program on Wednesday, Feb. 27 featuring Peter C. Harvey, the first African American to serve as New Jersey attorney general.

The event will begin at 12:30 p.m. in courtroom 201 of the Middlesex County Courthouse, 56 Paterson St., New Brunswick.

Harvey was appointed acting attorney general in February 2003 by then-Gov. Jim McGreevey and later confirmed by the state Senate in June 2003. He served until 2006. Following his resignation, he became a partner in the New York City law office of Patterson, Belknap, Webb, and Tyler.

Harvey will speak on the themes of Black History Month.

Assignment Judge Alberto Rivas and Trial Court Administrator Dawn Brevard-Waters will give opening remarks.

This event is sponsored by the Middlesex Vicinage Advisory Committee on Minority Concerns.

Refreshments will be served and the event is open to the public.
