Camden Vicinage to Host Courtyard Community Celebration

The Camden Vicinage will host a courtyard community celebration that will include multiple Camden County civic community partners on Monday, Sept. 16 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Hall of Justice, 101 S. 5th St., Camden.

Participants providing information include the Judiciary, the Superintendent of Elections, the County Clerk's Office, the Surrogate's Office, the Office of Emergency Management, the Camden County Library, the Camden County Animal Shelter, Camden County Veterans Affairs, the Camden County One-Stop Career Center, Rutgers Law School, and the Camden County Prosecutor's Office of Victim Witness Advocacy.

Demonstrations will be offered by the Camden County Metro Police Department, the Camden County Sheriff's Office, and the Camden City Fire Department. The Camden County Health Connection Mobile Unit will provide a variety of health screenings and education for the public. Several local food truck vendors will be on site.

“We are excited to be celebrating our second annual community fair, which showcases many of the services that are provided to all court users,” Judge Silverman Katz said.

This event celebrating civics, community, health, family and food is free and open to the public. Registration is not required.
