Middlesex Vicinage to Hold Student Art Exhibit Reception

The Middlesex Vicinage will hold a reception for a student art exhibit on Wednesday, Jan. 29 at 4 p.m. at the Middlesex County Courthouse, 120 New St., New Brunswick.

The reception will open a permanent exhibit designed by students at the Paul Robeson Community School for the Arts in New Brunswick.

Under the direction of art teacher Brittany Bialek and with the support of principal Kelly Mooring, middle school students were challenged to draw landscapes and animals native to New Jersey. The colorful images line the walls of the hallway leading to the children's waiting room in the courthouse.

The project was funded by the Middlesex County Bar Foundation.

For further information about the project or the event, contact Nancy Einbinder at 732-645-4300, ext. 88808.
