Supreme Court Order Extends COVID-19 -Related Suspensions of Court Proceedings and Other Matters

The Supreme Court issued an order today extending the deadlines for the suspension of court proceedings and other matters in light of the ongoing public health emergency caused by coronavirus COVID-19.

The order extends by 30 days the provisions set forth in previous orders involving criminal, civil, family, tax and municipal courts.

It also continues the suspension of civil and criminal jury trials until further notice.
