Monmouth Vicinage to Conduct Election Day Hearings Virtually

A Superior Court judge will be available to conduct remote hearings for election challenges or issues in Monmouth County on Tuesday, July 7, from 6 a.m. until 8 p.m., Assignment Judge Lisa P. Thornton and Trial Court Administrator Gurpreet M. Singh announced today.

Anyone seeking to petition the court on a voting or election issue on the date of the election can contact the Superior Court at 732-358-8700, ext. 87590, or at MONEmergent.Mailbox@njcourts.gov.

If appropriate, the matter will be promptly heard by the designated judge with notice to election officials. Election officials, petitioners, and attorneys can appear before the designated judge by video or telephone. If a user does not have access to a telephone to participate in the virtual proceeding, the user can appear at the Monmouth County Board of Elections, 300 Halls Mills Road, Freehold, where arrangements will be made for a remote hearing.

Voters and residents with questions about the July 7 election or who are seeking assistance on casting their vote can contact the Monmouth County Board of Elections at 732-431-7780.
