Valerie D. Fragé Named Assistant Director for Division of Finance

Valerie D. Fragé has been named the assistant director for the Division of Finance of the New Jersey Judiciary, Judge Glenn A. Grant, acting administrative director of the courts, announced today.

Fragé replaces Todd A. McManus, who was named director of Management and Administrative Services in July. She will oversee the Judiciary's financial operations, including budgeting, financial reporting, purchasing, banking and cash management.

Returning to the Judiciary, Fragé first served as assistant finance division manager in the Monmouth Vicinage for eight years before becoming director of financial management for the Office of Attorney General in 2016.

She worked in the private sector for three financial firms between 1998 and 2008.
