Passaic Vicinage to Hold Landlord/Tenant and Domestic Violence Community Outreach Program

The Passaic Vicinage's Committee on Diversity, Inclusion and Community Engagement will present a landlord/tenant and domestic violence community outreach program on Wednesday, March 24 from 5 to 6:30 p.m. via Zoom.

The landlord/tenant portion will feature information for landlords and tenants on funding sources during the pandemic, an overview of the complaint process, and the rights and responsibilities of landlords and tenants.

The domestic violence segment will feature an overview of the complaint process and information for plaintiffs and defendants.

A question-and-answer session will follow each segment.

Panelists will include representatives from Northeast New Jersey Legal Services, members of the Passaic County Bar Association, and staff from the vicinage's civil and family divisions.

The event is free and open to the public. Registration is not required. Interpreting services will be available. As this is an informational only, no individual cases can be discussed or resolved.
